

Welcome to the 2012 Junior Honda Classic!

December 8th & 9th, 2012
PGA National Resort & Spa

As we enter the 6th year of the Junior Honda Classic, we have been overjoyed by the growth and participation this tournament's field. Last year we were fortunate to have a field of over 200 players, with representation from all over the state of Florida, multiple states from across the nation and from many different countries across the globe!

With this in mind we are looking for more way to expand the Junior Honda Classic and to give more opportunities to the junior's participating. Below are some new exciting elements for this year's field.

We are eager to announce that for the 2012 Junior Honda Classic that the 36 hole-division will be playing on the Palmer Course and the Fazio Course! Formerly known as the Haig, the Fazio is a complete renovation of the course, allowing for more green space and lengthening the course to over 7000 yards!

To be able to accommodate the overwhelming interest in participating in the event we will have the 18 hole-division play on both Saturday and Sunday, depending on age division. The 18 hole-division age groups 9-10 & 11-12 will play Saturday December 8th on the Fazio Course. The 18 hole-division age groups 13-15 & 16-18 will play on Sunday December 9th on the Palmer Course.

Lastly for the 9 hole-division, that will be played on Sunday December 9th, the tee times be in the afternoon with the first tee time starting around noon.

We hope everyone is excited to participate in the 2012 Junior Honda Classic; we are looking forward to having everyone back and seeing some new faces as well!
